lands department of the forest service, has returned from an extended trip to the Dixie land of southern Utah, where he attended to land classifications of considerable importance. Mr. Hoyt states that the lands department of all the forest districts are much occupied in making classification of forest lands in such a way as to encourage settlement and agricultural development of all lands that are not purely forest reserve.

Orpheum Social—A social hour was passed last night by the employees of the Orpheum theater and the Panthea vaudeville players featured in Christmas week program, as guests of Manager and Mrs. Joseph Goss, on the stage of the theater, following the second vaudeville performance. Short speeches were made by several of the actors and theater employees and a general Christmas spirit prevailed.
Just before the time came for the final "good-nights," Manager Goss was told to "wait a minute" and Hardeen, the handcuff king, speaking for the employees of the theater, presented him with a valuable cut glass waterset. The gift was accepted by Mr.
Goss with a few words of appreciation

ALHAMBRA THEATER IS SCENE OF MERRY MAKING

The officers and employees of the Alhambra Theatrical company and the entire cast of the Hippodrome vaudeville bill being presented at the Alhambra this week were guests last night of Manager and Mrs. H. E.
Skinner at a banquet. The feast was served on tables arranged on the stage of the theatre in the most approved theatrical Christmas style.

The event followed the closing of the theatre—to the public—for the night and was immensely enjoyed by the local people and the traveling entertainers. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, assisted by Stage Manager "Billy" Lee did the "honors" and their courtesies were thoroughly appreciated.

Toward the close of the happy occasion, Manager Skinner was the surprised and pleased recipient of a silver brush set, a token of appreciation for past kindly treatment, from the stage employees. He accepted the gift with a neat speech.

Sunday and interment will be in the Wellsville cemetery.

HIGLEY—The funeral of Clarence Higley, whose body arrived in Ogden yesterday from San Francisco, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the Eleventh ward meeting house, with Bishop N. A. Tanner presiding. The body may be viewed today and tomorrow until 1 p. m. at the family residence. Interment will be in the city cemetery.

BROWN—Funeral services for Albert Brown will be held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Eleventh ward chapel and interment will be in the city cemetery. The body may be viewed at the residence, 355 Brown avenue, this afternoon and evening, tomorrow and Monday until the funeral hour.

SQUIRES—The funeral of Mrs.
Alice Vera Dean Squires, wife of Leo M. Squires, will be held tomorrow at 12:30 p. m. in the Twentieth ward chapel in Salt Lake City. The deceased was born in Ogden, October 14, 1887 and was married to Mr. Squires February 19, 1913. They had lived in Ogden for the past three years.

Early next month, the buyers of the various departments of Wrights' Store will leave for the eastern markets to purchase the stocks for spring. The buyer of the ready-to-wear department, however, will not leave Ogden until all, or most all, of the present stocks in that department are sold.

The buying of ready-to-wear must be gauged according to the stocks on hand, and since the season at Wrights in this department has been one of such large volume, the buyer will make an effort to sell the stocks out completely before leaving. In order to do this some astonishing reductions have been made in the prices. The announcement of the sale appears in another part of this paper.—(Advertisement).
